Become part of our Whānau at Stratford Community House

We all need friends, and our Community House is no different.

We want to fill our House with whānau: people who care about connection, community, and making a difference. By becoming part of Whānau at Stratford Community House, you're supporting the essential social services we offer. This is an independent membership group dedicated to backing the work of Stratford Community House.

As one of the Whānau, you will

- Have your support acknowledged on our sponsor board
- Connect with like-minded people who care about the community
- Support special fundraising projects
- Receive a quarterly newsletter with updates and stories

Whānau: (noun) a traditional word that means extended family. It has also come to mean a group of people connected through shared purpose, experience, or kaupapa (cause/ mission) - not necessarily blood.
